ON THE MED

As the capital of Cyprus, Nicosia is a cultural melting pot that remains ripe for exploration, yet relatively untouched by mainstream tourism. Opening in early 2025, the Amyth of Nicosia hotel is set within the city's medieval Venetian walls, being a listed villa that boasts decorative ceilings, vintage tiled floors and a stunning grand staircase. Comprising seven luxury bedrooms and three suites, the hotel's central courtyard will be shaded by lush olive trees. Visit amythhotels.com
